■ Terms of Use

Welcome to the Meidar Architects website. This site provides information about our architectural services, projects, articles, and professional updates. Using the website constitutes agreement that all content, images, and designs are for general informational purposes only and do not constitute binding architectural or professional advice. All copyrights on content, images, drawings, designs, and logos are reserved to Meidar Architects only. No use, copying, distribution, or publishing of any material is permitted without prior written consent from the site owners. Meidar Architects reserves the right to change, update, or remove content at any time. We are not responsible for inaccuracies or outdated information. Links to external websites may appear; Meidar Architects holds no responsibility for third-party content or services. Use of the website and any dispute will be governed by the laws of the State of Israel and adjudicated in Tel Aviv courts.

■ Privacy Policy

At Meidar Architects, we respect your privacy and are committed to protecting it. The site does not collect personal information, does not include forms, newsletters, or cookies. Only anonymous technical analytics data may be collected (browser type, operating system, browsing statistics). Such data is stored on secure hosting servers for a limited time only, for technical purposes and site performance improvement. We comply with international privacy standards, including GDPR, even though no personally identifiable data is collected. We do not share data with third parties for marketing or commercial purposes.

■ Accessibility Statement

Meidar Architects is committed to making its website accessible to all users, based on values of equality, dignity, and transparency. Accessibility adjustments implemented include: • Full navigation via keyboard (TAB, Shift+TAB, Enter, Esc) • Screen reader support (NVDA, JAWS, VoiceOver) • Hierarchical heading structure (H1, H2, H3) • Proper text-to-background contrast • Alternative text (Alt) for meaningful images • Mobile-friendly browsing Limitations: Some dynamic content or third-party plugins may not be fully accessible. We continue to work on improvements. Ongoing accessibility reviews: The site is reviewed every few months in accordance with Israeli Standard 5568 / WCAG 2.1 guidelines.
